CW504 – FERPA

1. The FERPA rights of a student begin:
   a) When the application for admission is received.
   b) When the student is formally admitted.
   c) When the student makes their first payment.
   d) When the student registers and attends their first class, officially considered "in attendance" by the University.

2. To be protected by FERPA, the information must be:
   a) Personally identifiable to the student.
   b) Maintained by the institution.
   c) Kept in the Registrar's office.
   d) a and b only.

3. Directory information may contain all of the following EXCEPT the student’s:
   a) Participation in officially recognized activities and sports.
   b) Major.
   c) E-mail address.
   d) Country of citizenship.

4. Under FERPA, students may request that institutions not disclose which of the following about them:
   a) Directory information.
   b) Non-directory information.
   c) Both directory and non-directory information.
   d) Incidental information.

5. You receive a phone call to verify that 1) a student is currently enrolled, 2) what her address was at the time of attendance, 3) her date of birth, and 4) her major field of study. According to FERPA, you can verify all of these except:
   a) Attendance at the institution.
   b) GPA.
   c) Address at the time of attendance.
   d) Major field of study.